MEMORANDUM FOR: Colonel White

The two paragraphs in the nominating paper about which I spoke to you last evening have been reworked in coordination with [REDACTED] We also took the liberty of preparing a second version of the Director's transmittal letter for your consideration.

Bob Wattles, understandably, is reluctant to call Jean Couturier since other nominations are in and since we were a bit late last year. We agreed that he should hold off until the end of the day on the outside chance that you might be able to get the papers signed by the Director today.
